Liz Austin to Speak at CVDA Dinner

Liz Austin will be our special guest speaker at the CVDA Annual Dinner. Her wonderful sense of humor and vast experience training and showing are clearly evident when she talks about her life in the world of dressage. Liz has been a dressage competitor since 1989. At twelve, she started her first horse under saddle. At sixteen she competed in her first Prix St. Georges on a horse she trained herself and by twenty-two, she made her Grand Prix dressage debut in Europe riding Olivier.

Liz has had the unique opportunity to work with some of the greatest riders and trainers in the world. In the spring of 2013, she had the chance to spend two months in England training with Carl Hester which she calls, "the most inspirational riding adventure of my life." Other trainers Liz has also worked extensively with Kathy Connelly, Michael Barisone, Lendon Gray, Robert Dover, Oded Shimoni, Tuny Page and Jennifer Baumert. As a Young Rider Liz participated in the Advanced Young Rider clinics with Conrad Schumacher and she credits him with giving her the basis for much of her training today. Additional clinicians Liz has worked with include Debbie McDonald, Ingrid Klimke, Scott Hassler, Ulf Moeller and Hubertus Schmidt.
